Good morning {firstname},

This is one of those photos you take leaning out the window very early because "the sky looks beautiful this morning". Or maybe it's just me?

I like the contrast between the blackness of the tree tops in the foreground against the colours of the sky, the few leaves still clinging to the thinnest of branches. If you would like to see the full image then please click on the link above, this is only about a third of it.

This image is available to buy now at a very special price.

I have something very special for you in this week's Journal, a film about wild Hamsters living in Austria. Beautifully shot by Gamander López, I hope you enjoy it as much as I did.

Until next Monday have a great week.

Very best wishes,
