

Monday 15th July 2024

Website

Good morning,

Do you like swimming {firstname}? It's not for me despite being a "water sign." I like being near the sea and I love the sound of the waves crashing on the beach, all those pebbles being washed in and out but I have no desire to swim.

The picture of the swimmer was taken quite by chance on Seasalter beach, near Whitstable. We were looking after our granddaughter when I noticed this arm breaking the surface and took a couple of quick frames. The line of turbines on the horizon divides the image between sea and sky nicely while the sun on his arm draws your eye to the disturbance in the water behind him. A good example of being in the right place at the right time. If you would like to buy a print of this photo please let me know as it's not currently on the website and we can discuss size and print options, it would look great as a Chromaluxe® or under Acrylic.

---

COMPETITION UPDATE

Thank you for all your entries to last week's competition, I forgot to tell you the closing date so I have extended the deadline until Thursday midnight to get your winning descriptions in. The prize is a 12" x 12" signed print of one of the three colour options in last week's email.

---

In The Journal this week...

giclée prints

Discover more about Giclée prints

---

The Monday Picture

One image and the background story.
This photo was taken with Fuji XT2 &
16 - 55mm lens.
Until next Monday have a great week.

Murray
murraylaidlaw.com

---

If you're thinking of unsubscribing please let me know and I can personalise the content you receive to better meet your requirements.